

COMMUNICATIONS TECHNICIANS

We are currently looking to recruit Offshore Communications Technicians for maintenance and support of multiple systems in the Southern North Sea. Main duties would include:

Maintenance and support of:

- Marine radio systems
- Satellite: VSAT, TSAT, telephones, Broadband
- Line of Sight radios
- PAGA systems
- Multiplexers
- Satellite TV systems

Additional tasks would include

- Preventative and Corrective maintenance.
- MUX support and configuration and planning.
- LOS radio support configuration and planning
- Project planning and installations - Management of Change

Location:

- Based in Norfolk and working on Offshore Platforms flying from Norwich Airport
- Offshore flying out of Norwich.
- Offshore Walk to Work boat.

Pre Requisite:

- Minimum of 3 years experience as Telecomm Technician in the Oil and Gas industry.
- Must have current offshore Survival BOSIET (with CA-EBS) or FOET (with CA-EBS) and MIST.
- COMPEX
- Must be flexible with regard to working time and have good interpersonal skill as the role is quite varied and dynamic.
- Preferably with HNC or equivalent qualification.

Working time

Offshore: 2 weeks on 2 weeks off. 12hour days

Good rate of pay for the right candidate.

If you have experience in any of these systems then please send in your CV to;

enquire@sefsl.com